

Hayama International School PYP Programme of Inquiry 2023-24

	Unit 1 Apr. 6 - May 19	Unit 2 May 22 - Jun. 30	Unit 3 Sep. 4 - Oct. 13	Unit 4 Oct. 16 - Nov. 24	Unit 5 Nov. 27 - Jan. 26	Unit 6 Jan. 29 - Mar. 8
PS	Who We Are Learning about ourselves helps shape identity and belonging
PK	Who We Are People can learn more about who they are and how different relationships affect their well-being
	How We Express Ourselves Creativity is expressed in many ways
		Sharing the Planet People share the Earth with all living things How The World Works Through investigations, we test our ideas and theories and make discoveries
JK	Who We Are We can learn about ourselves and others through reflecting on who we are and what we can do
	How We Express Ourselves Our senses help us to express ourselves
	Plants and animals have	he Planet e needs in order to grow r healthy	How The World Works Weather and seasonal changes affect life on Earth
SK	Who We Are Families and friends enrich our lives and require nurturing in order to develop	Sharing the Planet Living things are dependent on the habitat in which they live	How the World Works Movement Causes Change		How We Express Ourselves Celebrations connect people and cultures over place and time
Grade 1	How We Organize Ourselves Schools help us work and learn together	Where We Are in Place and Time Learning about the past helps us to understand how things have changed	Who We Are Each family has its own culture that makes them unique	How We Express Ourselves Ideas and feelings inspire creativity	Sharing the Planet People make choices in order to sustain Earth's resources	How the World Works People work together in a community

Grade 2	Who We Are Knowing how our body systems work helps us make decisions for ourselves	Sharing the Planet Oceans are changing as a result of natural and human impact	How the World Works Earth is a unique planet in our system	Where We Are in Place and Time The characteristics of places we explore help us to understand people's culture and traditions.	How We Express Ourselves Choices of role models reflect values and beliefs of individuals and societies	How We Organize Ourselves Performances can communicate a message and create an impact
Grade 3	How We Express Ourselves Stories help us express ourselves	Where We Are In Place and Time Homes and infrastructure can impact the environment	Sharing the Planet Ecosystems are a delicate balance of living and non-living things all interconnected and easily influenced	How We Organize Ourselves The goods and services that human societies pay for are influenced by their needs and wants	Who We Are International mindedness requires an understanding of different cultures	How the World Works Knowing the Earth's structure helps people understand about the changes on Earth
Grade 4	Where We Are In Place and Time Traditions within celebrations can connect people locally and globally	Sharing the Planet Living things have adaptations that enable them to live in certain environments	How the World Works People can make choices to support the sustainability of Earth's resources	How We Organize Ourselves Our rights as citizens are impacted by responsibility at a local, national, and global level	Who We Are Wellbeing is a complex combination of a person's physical, mental, social, and emotional health	How We Express Ourselves Music and dance are forms of expressions we use to communicate with other people
Grade 5/6	Who We Are Family structures and relationships play an important role in shaping one's sense of self and our understanding of the world	Where We Are in Place and Time Migration impacts family structures and the transmission of cultural values and traditions between generations over time	How the World Works Innovation impacts societal advancement	How We Organize Ourselves People create organizations to solve problems and support human development	Sharing the Planet Energy sources guide our lives (Grade 5) /PYP Exhibition (Grade 6)	How We Express Ourselves Online communication involves societal and personal responsibilities