

A-4 CLASSROOM Newsletter

11.29.2024

Dear Parents and Guardians,
I hope this finds you well.
As the holiday season approaches,
the students are working harder than ever in preparation for their Holiday performance. The students have also been having fun learning and singing "Let it be" with the A8 class!

Math

Students have been working on subtraction these last two weeks and are steadily improving their understanding of it.

UOI

Students have learned about staying healthy, mimes and sign language in UOI these last two weeks. With sign language, students are learning that there are different ways that people around us may use to communicate.

Language Arts

Students have finished up reviewing the alphabet with the letters Y and Z! We will now start venturing into learning about CVC's starting with short a!
