

JHS NEWSLETTER

Happy November!

Welcome to our November newsletter, where we embrace the crisp air and vibrant colors of fall. As the season of gratitude unfolds, we're excited to share updates, highlights, and upcoming events from across our community. From inspiring student achievements to festive fall activities, there's plenty to celebrate this month!

As the year begins to wind down, we will like to share some important reminders:

- November 24th – Labor Thanksgiving Day Observed -no school.
- December 8th – HOLIDAY PARTY

October highlights

- Last month, Julia worked with great enthusiasm while making her Halloween bag and she showed so much creativity and passion in her craft. Please enjoy the pictures of her wonderful work from that time.
